About – National Academy of Indian Railways

National Academy of Indian Railways (NAIR), originally started in the year 1925 as a Transportation School, is the apex training institute of Indian Railways (IR). The Academy has been operating from the Pratap Vilas Palace situated in Vadodara city, the cultural capital of Gujarat state, since 31-Jan-1952. The lush-green campus of the Academy is IGBC certified as well as ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015 and OHSAS 18001:2007 certified.

The Academy is a cradle of leadership. Every year, the Academy trains Probationary Officers of all the organized services of Indian Railways. Besides, various Management and Capacity building programmes are organised to train Railway officers in different stages of their career. The Academy also organizes customized training programmes for non-Railway personnel like Executives of Public Sector Undertakings, Foreign Nationals and Private organisations.

The Academy delivers training in Classroom, Online and Blended modes, which is coordinated by a team of well qualified and experienced Members, who are Indian Railways' officers posted under various functional Faculties at the Academy. Moreover, the Academy also has a repository of Visiting Lecturers who are Industry experienced persons, renowned Academicians and senior functionaries of Indian Railways.

The Academy has excellent infrastructure for conducting the training programmes. It has 5 well equipped modern class rooms, two hostels to accommodate 250 trainees at a time and a mess hall for 240 persons. The Academy is also well equipped with Sports facilities like Badminton, Lawn Tennis, Basket Ball, Volleyball, Shotput, Billiards, Table Tennis, Gym, Yoga etc.

The Academy has 07 other sister Centralized Training Institutes of Indian Railways for disciplines like Civil Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Signal & Telecom, Transportation & Commercial, Finance & Accounts and Railway Security.

The prestigious Golden Peacock National Training Award has been conferred upon to the Academy twice (1998 & 2019) in recognition to excellence in training practices as a whole. The Academy is always committed to train, equip and shape officers into new disciplines, challenges and systems to put forward Indian Railways at greater heights.
